Section 4.2 Accessory Dwelling

- (A) A dwelling unit may be allowed as an accessory to another principal use, subject to the following provisions:
- (1) One attached or detached dwelling unit that is an accessory to ~~an owner-occupied~~ single family dwelling on an owner-occupied lot, located outside of the flood hazard areas defined in Section 5.3, shall be allowed as a permitted use. Such accessory dwelling shall not exceed ~~800~~ 900 square feet or 30% of the total existing living area of the principal dwelling, whichever is greater, and shall meet other applicable requirements under subsections (3) and (4), below.
 - (2) One caretaker's apartment which is accessory to a nonresidential use may be approved as an accessory to another use by the Development Review Board in accordance with Section 5.2. A caretaker's apartment shall be located within the Industrial District, be occupied by the owner or an employee of the principal use, and shall not exceed ~~800~~ 900 square feet.
 - (3) All accessory dwellings shall:
 - i. meet setback requirements for ~~principal~~ accessory structures for the district in which they are located; for nonconforming structures, the degree of nonconformance shall not be increased by the addition of an accessory apartment or dwelling;
 - ii. have adequate potable water and wastewater systems in accordance with applicable municipal and state regulations; ~~and~~
 - iii. be provided with off-street parking for the residents of the dwelling in accordance with Section 3.13
 - (4) Any zoning permit issued for an accessory dwelling shall clearly state that the dwelling is permitted only as an accessory to the principal use of the property and shall be retained in common ownership. An accessory dwelling to a single-family dwelling may be subdivided and/or converted for conveyance or use as a principal dwelling only if it is found to meet all current municipal regulations applying to a two family dwelling, or to two single family dwellings if detached, including all density and dimensional requirements for the district in which it is located. All applicable municipal permits and approvals shall be required prior to conversion to, or conveyance as, a principal dwelling.

Tax Map Amendment

Extending the Highway Mixed Use zoning district from Wolcott Street along Granite Street to Brook Street. This would be a change from Village Neighborhood to Highway Mixed Use on Map 23, Lots 3, 4, and 62.
