Information Sessions About Hardwick's Proposed Essential Services Building

HARDWICK VOTERS ARE EXPECTED TO CONSIDER A $6 MILLION BOND IN NOVEMBER 2026.

WE'VE TALKED ABOUT WHY. NOW LET'S TALK ABOUT WHAT AND HOW.

OCTOBER 8 • 6:00–8:00 PM

WHAT ARE WE BUILDING?

Take a closer look at the proposed Essential Services Building — the site, facility design, shared spaces, and the needs of Fire, Rescue, and Public Works.

Learn how the current design was developed and bring your questions about the proposed facility.

OCTOBER 22 • 6:00–8:00 PM

HOW DO WE PAY FOR IT?

Learn about project costs, available funding, the proposed $6 million bond, potential tax impacts, and the financial considerations behind the project.

Bring your questions about what the project could mean for Hardwick taxpayers.

BOTH INFORMATION SESSIONS

Parker Ladd Memorial Room, Jeudevine Memorial Library

Come ask questions and learn more about the proposal.

These information sessions are intended to help the community understand the proposed Essential Services Building, its cost and financing and the information they will need before being asked to vote.
